Sir,

Re Purchase of barbed wire to the park-fencing by the Mandya Municipality

6/10

With reference to your letter No L 818 dated 12-7-47, on the above subject, I have the honour to state that it is reported by the President, Town Municipal Council, Mandya, that the Barbed wire required for the park has not been purchased yet, as the same is reported to be not available In this connection, it is stated that an estimate for Rs 5,700/- for putting up Barbed wire fencing around Silver Jubilee park has been prepared and sanctioned by the Municipal Council on 7-1-47 I request you kindly to obtain sanction of Government to the estimate and to meet the cost from the closing balance of the Municipality The estimate in question together with the plan of the park is enclosed for favour of reference and return

As one of the causes for the deterioration of the parks is stated to be the absence of proper fencing, the present wooden fencing having fallen into disrepair in many places, the President requests early orders of Government in the matter

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
